Dear Andy,

The enclosed letters from a man in England may get you a new customer. I've written him referring him to you.

Eyeball to Eyeball came while my friend Merry McKnight, history prof at Hood College, was here, so I gave him the package, knowing what was in it.

But until I got this letter that you were to include your cards you'd had prinyed did not come to mind.

When I spoke to McKnight he'd not looked at the package after taking the book out.

Sorry, but when you can would you please send me a few more?

Best wishes,

Harl
